AN INVITATION TO JOIN

Produced by the
Tamworth Breeders' Club

THE PIG

The Tamworth is thought to be the most typical breed descended from the old indigenous species, the Old English Forest pig.

As the breeds name suggests these pigs are traditionally remembered as cottagers' pigs in the midlands.

Reasons for choosing a Tamworth Pig are...

- Makes a good bacon or pork pig
- Talkative and is full of character
- Hardy and can therefore be kept in environments ranging from rough pasture to woodland but is equally happy indoors
- Good at clearing scrub
- Particularly resistant to sunburn
- Sows make excellent mothers being milky, docile as well as protective.

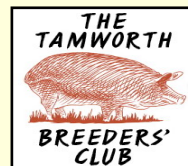

THE CLUB

The Club Aims

- To protect and nurture the breed
- To assist the British Pig Association with registration
- To promote showing the breed
- To encourage and promote the breed
- To encourage improvement of the breed by good selection of stock

Benefits of joining...

- The club has a get together once a year for an AGM and social event. This is a great way to meet other members and swap hints or tips
- Receive regular newsletters
- We provide a free 'stock for sale' service to members
- Free general advice is available to all members
